Dear Friends,

Routine or bad-habits can cause us to participate poorly in the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass. By reading the information below, we can check on how many 'bad-habits' we have developed over the years and how we fail to participate fully in celebrating the Holy Mass. We must never become spectators at the Liturgy, but always strive to raise our minds, hearts and souls to God in prayer and thanksgiving. Let us also be good listeners to the Word of God during the Sacred Liturgy and say 'yes' to what the Lord is asking us to do during the coming week.

Your friend,
Mmgr. Morgan

GETTING THE LEAST BY PAUL TURNER

If you'd like to get the least out of going to Mass on Sundays, here are some strategies you can try:

- * Eat a large meal before going to Church
- * Arrive for Mass late.
- * Sit in the back of the Church.
- * Read the bulletin during the service.
- * Don't sing any songs.
- * Don't make the responses
- * Keep your cell phone turned on and handy to hear your ring tones and send texts.
- * Chew gum.
- * Mentally criticize the appearance of people you see.
- * Be angry about something. It really doesn't matter what.
- * Think constantly about where you are going when Mass is over.
- * Whenever there is time for silent prayer, look at your watch.
- * Let your mind wander throughout the service, but especially during the readings, the homily and the Eucharistic prayer.
- * Never offer to assist as a greeter, usher, lector, Communion minister, server, or cantor
- * Don't contribute to the collection, of if you do, use coins only.
- * Avoid eye contact during the sign of peace.
- * Never drink the Blood of Christ at Holy Communion.
- * Leave Mass early. After you receive communion, head for the door. Do not return to your seat. You may want to put your car keys in one hand while you receive communion with the other.
- * Drive away as quickly as possible. If others who are trying to get the least are in your way, honk the horn at them.
- * Don't pray at home during the following week, unless an emergency comes up.

ACT OF CONSECRATION TO THE SACRED HEART OF JESUS. O most holy Heart of Jesus, fountain of every blessing, we adore You, we love You, and with a lively sorrow for our sins, we offer You these poor hearts of ours. Make us humble, patient, pure and completely obedient to your Will. Grant, good Jesus, that we may live in You and for You. Protect us in the midst of danger, comfort us in all afflictions, give us health of mind, body and emotions, assistance in our temporal needs, your blessing on all that we do, and the grace of a holy death. Amen.
